13.6.2025

We've had a very busy week at Lovington Primary School with the SIAMS inspection taking place. A big thank you to all our parents who took the time to share their views with the inspector, as well as to our school governors and Church representatives who joined us yesterday to share their thoughts. Your support is greatly appreciated, and we will notify you of the outcome in due course, once we are able to do so.

I am delighted that the following children have been awarded certificates:

Well Done Medals

Pippin Class – Motivation – Milo

For his fantastic effort with his phonics this week!
Well done, Milo!

Bramley Class – Motivation – Jasmine

For continued perseverance and determination to learn her times tables this week.
Well done Jasmine!

Russet Class – Independence – William

William for his continuing effort in English to use all of the skills practises independently in his writing.
Well done William!

Well done to our readers this week:

Pippin Class

Finty – 125 reads
Coen – 200 reads

Bramley Class

Jasmine – 50 reads

Kindness Cup

This week our kindness cup is awarded to two children Arthur and Barney.

Arthur, for always being polite and holding open doors and offering to collect up or hand out books and equipment for the class. Thank you Arthur.

Barney, for being nominated by many of his friends for being thoughtful and kind on the playground and in the classroom.

Attendance Matters

This week our attendance is 97.2%

Safeguarding:

We take child protection extremely seriously at our school. If you have a concern, you can speak to any of the school's designated and trained child protection officers:
