05.06.26

On Wednesday, our oldest children immersed themselves in a World War II themed Hook Day. Many embraced the opportunity to dress as evacuees or Land Girls, while also creating authentic props, including gas masks and identity labels, helping to bring this significant period of history to life.

Mrs King, our visiting author, arranged a fun and interesting day with lots of practical activities. The children explored rationing and made a pudding, cracked codes, wrote Red Cross letters, and even made toilet paper! Mrs King commented on how engaged and polite our children are, which is always lovely to hear. We are very grateful to Mrs King for giving up her time and inspiring the children to learn more about World War II.
